Gambling Permit- KIDSon Cares

Councilor Peterson motioned to approve gambling permit for KIDSon Cares, motion seconded by Councilor Waller and carried.

Ecksteen Enterprises, LLC- 3rd Party Swim Agreement

Kroening reported; This year we will go forward with the agreement. Parks & Rec met Monday May 19 and discussed having Marili be an employee of the City however with the late notice.

Councilor Totleben joined the meeting.

We would do something similar to what the pool did in 2019. The parents would line up lessons with that lifeguard and the city would pay that as a salary to the lifeguard for the lessons.

Kroening stated when she visited with Marili she suggested $200. She would rent the pool as a private pool rental for her pool party.

Mayor Treumer asked Marili thoughts on a flat fee $500- Marili stated she felt $500 was too much considering because she has her pool pass and isn't getting any additional hours to use the pool.

Mayor Treumer motioned to set the agreement fee for $350. The motion was seconded by Councilor Waller Voting yes- Mayor Treumer and Councilor Waller.

Voting no- Councilor Peterson and Councilor Totleben.
